

Youth Services Directory

Something for Everyone!

HEALTH DEPARTMENT
Prince George's County

What is the Youth Services Directory?

The Youth Services Directory has been developed to provide information on community, government and non-government organizations in Prince George's County, Maryland, for use by young people, youth workers, parents and others working with young people.

What is the purpose of the Directory?

The Directory was compiled to create greater awareness of our County's services, encourage interagency cooperation, and provide greater access to services.

How can I access information?

The Table of Contents will help you identify broad subject areas. Information is divided into 18 major service categories. The Directory will be available on line.

Please notify us of changes: If you are aware of any changes to the information listed in this Directory or would like to include a listing, please contact:

Montpelier Arts Center is a dynamic multifaceted art destination located on the grounds of historic Montpelier Mansion in northern Prince George's County. Montpelier Arts Center enriches the communities of central Maryland by providing quality visual, literary, and performing arts programs. The Arts Center houses three galleries, artists' studios, and classrooms. The Main Gallery is used for invitational exhibitions and juried competitions. The Library Gallery exhibits one person and group shows, which are selected through an open competition by an outside juror. Work by artists of regional and national acclaim is featured. The Resident Artist Gallery features the work of artists who have studios at the Arts Center.

NATURE CENTERS AND OUTDOOR RECREATION

Clearwater Nature Center 11000 Thrift Road Clinton, MD 20735 www.pgparcs.com	301-297-4575 TTY: 301-699-2544
---	-----------------------------------

Located within Cosca Regional Park, Clearwater Nature Center offers a variety of interpretive programs hosted by the facility's Park Naturalists. Environmental education is strongly supported at this facility through interesting exhibits, displays, programs, special events, clubs, trips, and volunteer opportunities. A small indoor pond, live animal exhibits, a lapidary laboratory, and seasonal herb and butterfly gardens are some of the unique components of this facility. Many programs are closely coordinated with the County's public school curriculum, making Clearwater Nature Center a great place for school trips. Walk in on your own, or visit the facility as part of a group to explore live mammals, reptiles, amphibians, and birds of prey (including a bald eagle!) that reside here at the Center. Visitors are welcome free of charge. Nominal fees apply for programs.

Mount Rainier Nature and Recreation Center 4701 31 st Place Mount Rainier, MD 20712 www.pgparcs.com	301-927-2163 TTY: 301-699-2544

Located inside the Capital Beltway, Mt. Rainier Nature/Recreation Center is a unique facility, which operates as both a nature center and a recreation center. The facility hosts a variety of nature-related, interpretive programs for visitors of all ages. Programs related to nature study, urban wildlife, urban beautification, and animal care are offered at the Center. In addition to the structured programs held at the facility, drop-in visitation at the site affords opportunities to view special displays and exhibits, as well as participate in a variety of community outreach nature programs. The Center also hosts special events and interesting trips for residents and visitors of all ages, and is available for birthday parties and room rentals. Mt. Rainier Nature/Recreation Center's programs mix fun with education, making nature exciting to experience. Contact staff at the number above for information about programs, hours of operation, or rental opportunities, and explore Nature Programs to learn more about upcoming activities at this facility and others.
